HOW TO GET HERE

BY AIR: Wellington International Airport - one of New Zealand's largest airports - is an easy 15 minute drive from the city centre. Five airlines - Air New Zealand, Qantas, Jetstar, Virgin Australia and Singapore Airlines - fly in direct from Australia, and domestic services are plentiful. Bus, shuttle and taxi transfers into the city are readily available. You can also fly direct from Auckland into Kāpiti Coast Airport.

BY SEA: Wellington is a coastal gateway between the North and South islands, with regular ferry services taking passengers and vehicles across the Cook Strait. Two companies service the Strait - Interislander and Bluebridge.

BY ROAD: Wellington is located on two of New Zealand's major highways - State Highways 1 and 2. The Classic New Zealand Wine Trail is signposted by brown signs with grape icons.

BY TRAIN: KiwiRail Scenic Journeys operates a popular overland service between Auckland and Wellington. The journey takes approximately 12 hours.

BY CRUISE: The majority of cruise ships visiting Wellington berth at Aotea Quay. Aotea Quay is 1.3km from downtown Wellington - approximately a 20 minute walk. Transport options from the wharf include taxis, pre-booked shore excursion coaches and dedicated cruise shuttle buses.
